Features

Hang your TV flush to the wall

Make the most of your living space. The WL905 ultra-slim wall mount bracket is designed to hang select Sony BRAVIA™ OLED and LED TVs ranging from 55" Class up to 85" Class flush to the wall, just like a work of art.¹

Swivels for best viewing

You can swivel your wall-mounted TV so you can quickly adjust the angle for optimal viewing and easy access to connections. When combined with WB1 soundbar bracket (sold separately), TV and soundbar swivel in unison.^{2,3}

Keeps cables neatly hidden

Just run the cables along the guides and they'll be neatly hidden away. Even when swiveling your TV, the cables are barely visible.³

Hang your TV and soundbar as one

Combine WL905 wall mount bracket with the separately-sold WB1 soundbar bracket and compatible soundbar for a theater-like experience at home. They swivel in unison, fit close to the wall, and complement each other perfectly. The WB1 includes a paintable cable cover that hides the wires between the TV and soundbar.³

Designed for safe and easy installation

The WL905 is designed for safe and easy installation, while the magnetic lock system provides secure latching when pushed flush to the wall.
